THE FINE BLOODED HORSE.

CLITUS.

WILL stand the ensuing season, at the following places, vizt at Alge Marsh, Melville's the 12th and 13th January, Swinburne's the 14th, at George Sawyer's, the 16th at Wm. Mobley's the 4th, and will belet 16 Miles at the following prices, vizt Five Dollars for the single visit, Eight Dollars the season, and Ten Dollars to be paid at the end of the season. Any person putting by the insurance and board or parting with the mare forfeits the insurance money. No liability for accidents or losses, but all care will be taken to avoid either. The season to commence the 10th of March, and will expire the 10th of June.

CLITUS is most nobly proportioned, being a large number of people, both for his strength and for his beauty, and for the excellence of his coat.

His Colts will stay for themselves. He will visit the above enclaves, successively, on every 10th day, until the season expires.

Any person who will put by the Season, and fail in getting a Colt, may have the Fall Season gratis, by calling at the Horse's Stable.

WILLIAM MOBLEY, & Co.

INDIGO.

CLITUS was sent to Mr. Gandy's, he became Sir Archy; the day of birth was got by the old Peasant Wimp, of Kentucky, his grandfather, originally, out of a Galliard mare.

Dress horses.—CLITUS is a beautiful Chestnut, now riding nine years old, 6 ft. 6 in. long, two inches and half high, and of the finest—He has never been used, in consequence of having his childhood, by the kick of a Mare, which was a Colt.
